COSI Spanish Institute: Student conduct form for minors

1. A minor is defined as any participant of the program. His or her parents and/or guardians take complete responsibility for their son or daughter.
2. Students will conduct themselves in accordance with the local laws and standards, which includes but is not limited to being respectful of all COSI staff, personnel, professors, other students, chaperones and host families.
3. Tardiness, absences and disrespectful behavior are terms for immediate dismissal from the program.
4. Alcohol, tobacco and illegal drug use will not be tolerated. Any student who is found in possession of or under the influence of any alcohol or illegal drugs at any moment will be dismissed from the program. Any student who is found to disregard or disrespect the established rules or laws will be dismissed from the program. He/she will be responsible for extra expenses in changing the plane ticket departure date. No refunds will be given for the part of the program not taken.
5. Students must participate in all scheduled activities.
6. Costs of any medical, hospital or clinical care are the responsibility of the student. Students should carry pertinent insurance information, as well as have sufficient funds and/or credit card available, in case of an emergency.
7. Students must take recommendations given by COSI staff seriously, as living in a foreign city may be dangerous. COSI is not responsible for any property stolen from a student while in Costa Rica. Students must take every precaution necessary to protect themselves as well as their personal belongings during their stay in Costa Rica.
8. Students are not allowed to go out without any parent of the host family or a chaperone.
9. Students are not allowed to get any piercing nor tattoo while in the program.
10. Do you grant permission to COSI to use photos for the program promotional purposes of your son or daughter participating in COSI's Summer Camp in Costa Rica?
 YES NO

While participating in the program, I will abide by Costa Rican laws, as well as the rules and standards of the Costa Rica Spanish Institute. I promise to behave and be respectful of the COSI staff and my host family at all times. I promise to immediately inform the COSI staff if I have any problem with my classes, host family, health or any other emergency.
