Seoul students MUST COMPLETE this homestay questionnaire and email, fax or mail back to AmeriSpan at least two weeks before starting your program. Staying with a Host Family is the ideal way to learn more about the Korean way of life and to practice your conversation skills. All our host families are carefully interviewed by our Home stay Coordinator, and they are regularly visited to ensure high standards are maintained. Families have been selected on the basis of them having expressed an interest in sharing their culture with international students.
