

Why Spain is Great

1. Spain is great for SATISFACTION. All visitors will leave with warm memories, vibrant pictures, and the satisfaction of a trip well spent.
2. Spain is great because of its PASSION. Watch a Flamenco show and be part of the passionate footwork, sultry guitar chords, and hand movements unique to Spain.
3. Spain is great because of its ART AND ARCHITECTURE. Many museums are free to the public on specified days and one can't miss the Salvador Dali museum.
4. Spain is great for its IMMERSION in culture. The Spanish culture has so much to offer ranging from the flair of ancient times, to hot modern night clubs all done while being immersed in a new language.
5. Spain is a great way to explore NEW HORIZONS. Explore ancient archeological sites like the towering Sagrada Familia Church, and be at home in the enchanted castles of Almodovar del Rio, in Cordoba province.
6. Spain is great for ROMANCE. Soak up some rays with a sweetheart at the sunny beaches of Tossa de Mar, sip Jerez on an outdoor patio, dine at a Tapas bar, or walk the cobbled streets of Toledo.
7. Spain is great because of its UNDENIABLE BEAUTY. Visitors and locals can use public transportation to get picturesque views of the forest and along the coast in Bilboa. You can also view the old city in Madrid while having an adventure on public transportation.
8. Spain is great because of its LANDSCAPES. Follow the Ancient Pilgrim route to see the vibrant landscapes between Pyrenees and Santiago de Compostela.
9. Spain is great because of its EVENTS AND FESTIVALS. Spain is famous for bullfights and one can't forget sitting in Sol or Sombra while viewing the bullfights.
10. Spain is great because of the SIESTAS. Relax during an afternoon break while shops are closed with coffee and some olives.
