

I want to study in Spain because....

1. I want to ruin the Portuguese accent I perfected during my Amerispan studies in Brazil
2. I want Amerispan to give me the best college graduation present I could think of
3. I hate tomatoes and can't wait to throw them during the festival in Southern Spain
4. I really want to be tri-lingual, because bi-lingual is SO last year
5. Where else can I learn to dance Flamenco from the masters?
6. I have traveled all over South America and it's time to conquer Europe
7. My grandmother's family is originally from Spain and I want to meet some distant relatives
8. I spent my whole last semester of college doing a business project about Spain and I fell in love with the culture
9. I work in a Spanish restaurant and sometimes feel silly since I have never been to Spain
10. Every time I travel, I get inspired to travel even more.
