Why is it Different? What's this chart mean?

AmeriSpan's Levels are based on ACTFL's OPI (Oral Proficiency Interview) as most language immersion programs are focused on developing Speaking & Listening skills.

The CEF (Common European Framework) Levels were developed by the Council of Europe in order to try and set clear, attainable standards at different levels of language learning for European languages. CEF's scale incorporates reading, writing, speaking and listening skills, and are used by universities, corporations and other organizations when evaluating foreign applicants.
